

GARNET & BLACK

Garnet & Black, the university's student magazine since 1994, brings national style and interest to the collegiate and community level. The staff works with local boutiques, hotels and businesses to dress models, set up photo shoots and spark interest in the publication. The magazine's roots are in the community, and G&B finds its way into the hands of some of the city's most-followed shop owners, stylists and fashion junkies.
